Dear somya champawat

Reference: Letter dated 7-Dec-23 to The Chairman Techno India NJR Institute of Technology

This is with reference to the abovementioned Letter dated 7-Dec-23, wherein the institute was informed of the summer training assignment at American Express.

We would like to draw your attention to para 2 of the said letter (Copy attached herewith) wherein it is mentioned that you (the student) will undergo summer training (that is a part of your curriculum) at our organization with effect from 22-Jan-24 and that you shall abide by confidentiality, safety / security regulations and any other applicable rules and regulations of our organization.

Accordingly you hereby agree that:

1. You shall not release or divulge any information, any records of American Express that include but are not limited to information about banking accounts and transactions, proprietary data, trade secrets, and other confidential information, to any individual and/or any entity both during and after your summer training assignment.
2. You shall not undertake such activities or work that would lead to a possible conflict of interest during your summer training assignment with American Express.
3. You shall be bound by the American Express's Code of Conduct and fully adhere to relevant local laws, regulations, policies and procedures during your assignment and that any breach of the same will bring the assignment to an immediate end.

Thanking you,

Dr. Sachin Gulati
Director - India Campus Recruitment

I confirm acceptance of this Letter and the conditions therein provided
